

EXHIBIT 74

How do I know if the abortion pills worked?

The pills work for 98 out of 100 people who use them. If you had bleeding and cramping after taking misoprostol, your bleeding and cramping are now getting better, and your pregnancy symptoms like morning sickness or breast tenderness are going away, the abortion pills worked. You should take a pregnancy test 4-6 weeks after using the misoprostol to be sure.